

Arnd Franz

Chairman of the Management Board and CEO of the MAHLE Group since November 1, 2022

After studying business administration and pursuing his career in industry, Arnd Franz joined the MAHLE Group in 2001 as Managing Director of MAHLE Tennex North America Inc. (USA).

He then held various positions at the Stuttgart MAHLE Group headquarters – Director Controlling of MAHLE Filtersysteme GmbH from 2004, Member of the MAHLE Management Committee responsible for Aftermarket from 2006 and Member of the MAHLE Management Board responsible for Sales and Application Engineering and Aftermarket from 2013 – before becoming CEO of LKQ Europe, based in Switzerland, in 2019.

Arnd Franz is committed to clean, safe, affordable mobility. He supports fair competition between the best technologies on the way to the carbon-neutral mobility of the future. In addition to the importance of battery-electric drive systems, Arnd Franz also emphasizes the need for the fuel cell, as well as renewable fuels for internal combustion engines, and especially the creation of a hydrogen ecosystem required in this context.
